Sir,

I have the honor to state that there are 61 cases pending with the Deputy Collector Madura Division in which Compensation has yet to be settled with the owners of the lands taken up for the Periyar main and branch channels. The draft declarations in respect of these lands were published at various times and the rate of Compensation per acre to be given to the owners has been settled along with other similar lands. The only work remaining to be done is the taking of statements from such of the owners of the lands as may appear before the land acquiring officer as to their Consent or otherwise and the passing of awards
